Dear Sir or Madam:

I had the pleasure of working with Christina Dunigan at Sogang University Language Program's Nam Inchon academy for nearly two years. She was a valuable member of our team. The most valuable traits Christina brought to Nam Inchon SLP academy were:

- Professionalism. Christina always gave full attention and effort to planning, teaching, and the inevitable paperwork that is a part of teaching.
- Creativity. Christina was an excellent source of ideas for activities and materials for teaching. She knows many inventive games, and can quickly produce professional-quality flash cards, worksheets, and other classroom materials.
- Teamwork. Christina was always willing to help other teachers, who would frequently go to her for advice and ideas, or to borrow her materials.
- Rapport. Christina's students would rush in to greet her when they arrived every day. Even students who didn't attend her classes got to know her, and gathered around her when they got the chance.
- Resourcefulness. Christina could readily adapt materials for a variety of activities tailored to the specific abilities and needs of her classes.

Christina is a credit to the teaching profession, and a valuable team member wherever she goes. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dale Perkins

To whom it may concern,

This is to certify that I have taught ESL with Christina Dunigan for a period of one year. During that time I have found her to be hard-working and enthusiastic. She has made many resources to enrich her teaching environment. She has worked as a team member and contributed to the overall success of the school. She has also maintained excellent records regarding her students.

Yours Sincerely,
David Candie

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is a letter of reference for Christina Dunigan, who worked as an ESL teacher at our school for a total of 23 months, between April 2003 and September of 2005.

Ms. Dunigan has proved to be a dedicated and very effective English teacher. She taught children between the ages of 4 and 14 on a full-time basis. Her duties included lesson planning, educational material development, assessment, and assisting in training new teachers, in addition to teaching. Ms. Dunigan has been a reliable and valuable member of our team.

Some of her specific accomplishments included:

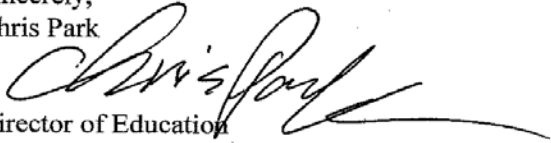

- creating numerous educational materials (worksheets, flash cards, etc.)
- conducting an annual Halloween "haunted house"
- helping students with speech tournaments
- organizing shared teaching resources

Ms. Dunigan's enthusiasm and sense of humor made her classes enjoyable, while her creativity and skill helped her students to make substantial progress in learning English. She volunteered to work overtime, teaching supplemental classes. She was always eager to help other teachers with ideas for activities and lessons.

Ms. Dunigan established a strong rapport with her students. The children love to interact with her both in and out of the classroom. She always made the effort not only to make learning fun for them, but also to give the students a rich cultural experience.

If you have any questions about Ms. Dunigan, please contact me here at the school.

Sincerely,
Chris Park
